By the arrival of the O. S. S. Alameda, from By the arrival of the O. S. S. Atamera, from San Francisco to this port, on the 22nd inst, news dates to the lifth inst, have been received from Secretary Patrick of the merchants exchange, (de-livered by Purser Sutton.) By the P. M. S. S. City of Systeey, which arrived in port here from San Francisco on the inst, two days later dates have been received. Following is the most impor-tant foreign news.

Terrible floods along the valley of the Ohio river.

Washisotros, Feb. 2.—Secretary Folger has referred the application of Mrs. Mary A. Miller for a license as Master of Steambouts to the Local Inspector at New Orleans District with instructions to inquire concerning her qualifications, and if she be found competent to issue her a license.

Scarm, Feb. 6.—The enemy surrounded and destroyed Tewik Bey and 400 of his followers between Sinkat and the coast, while attempting to out their way through the enemy.

Carno, Feb. 6.—The tribes beyond Korosko are in full revolt. General Gordon, who has arrived at Korosko, is unable to proceed on his journey to Khartoum.

Canadao, Feb. 8.—The reports of the condition of winter wheat in eight states are given in the Times this morning. The average seems to be about as usual. The crop has been well protected by snow, and there seems to be no unfaverable indications as to the yield so far. Cano, Feb. 8.—Official advices at Cairo an-mounce the total number killed near Tokar at 2250 including 96 officers, 16 of whom were staff officers. Baker Pashs telegraphs that he has at present in der his command 3,500 men, one-third of whom are unarmed. It is officially denied that the tribes beyond Korosko are in revolt.

beyond Korosko are in revolt.

Stakin, Feb. 7.—The English sailors in charge of the central works are on the best terms with Baker Pasha's troops. No less than 13,000 rifes have been discovered in the possession of the Egyptian Governor, who ought to have delivered them to Baker Pasha on the latter's arrival. The hazars are crowded with a mutimous rabble for sodders. If the enemy attacks the town, the blacks, who are more mutimous than the Egyptians will probably join the populace in an uprising against the foreigners.

Lender, Feb. 7.—The Standard's Cairo dispatch

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The Standard's Cairo dispatch says: Great indignation is felt by the Europeans and natives at the apathy of the British Government in view of the recent massacres. There is no news of General Gordon, and the general opinion is that only a miracle can save him when the news of Baker Pasha, s defeat spreads throughout the Soudan, the Soudan, Lospoo, Feb. 7.—In the House of Commons today Sir Stafford Northcoto gave notice that he will introduce a resolution on Tuesday stating that, in the opinion of the House, the recent untoward events in the Soudan are the direct result of the vacillating and inconsistent policy of the Ministry.

This amouncement was greeted with loud cheers from the opposition.

recent light near Tokar.

Pans, Feb. 8.—Official dispatches from Tonquin and Sontay have been dispersed with heavy losses. The rebel leader Tu Duc was wounded and took refuge in Baominh. Between 400 and 500 rebels were slain. The gunbont Parsaval destroyed mests of pirates at Savalow and Fow Tainson, killing and wounding many. An excellent feeling prevails at Hue. The King has appointed two delegates to assist Admiral Courbet in peacitying the country. Telegraph connections between Hanoi and Paris it is expected will be completed by the 15th.

Pans, February 8.—Two delegates sent to Pekin from Hus have returned quite undecided in regard to the intentions of China.

Losnos, February 8.—The Liberal whips have seen testing the strength of the party vote for the senting the strength of the party vote for the senting division on the motion consuring the Government for its Egyption policy. They find a sumber of Radicals unwilling to support the Government and wish to abstant from voting. The Party or Excellence of Flavor.

Catho, February 8.—It has been decided to send to Suskim on Saturday three British officers, who are serving in the Egyptian army, to form a bat-talion of 600 black and Turkish troops to hold the place with the English marines. Baker Pasha and the rest of the forces at Suakim will be rewasnesson, Feb. 9.—Secretary Folger to day rendered a decision settling the contest over the classification of rice, nee usual and small rice troken into small particles in process of cleaning. The Secretary holds that these qualities are subject to a duty of 20 per cent ad valorem instead of 2½ cts, per pound as charped upon cleaned rice. This is a question of great importance to brewers, as this small rice has for the past few years entered largely into the maintraleture of the best grades of beer.

Advices from South Africa report the death of Cetewayo, the famous Zulu chieftain, from heart Lexibos, Feb. 10.—Admiral Sermour received a summons after yesterday's Cabinet Council and was directed to be ready to be ready to set out for Egypt at an hour's notice. Came, Fels. 16.—The Khedive appears to be in a deplorable condition. He labors under a delision that there is a plot to poison him and sends his wife to the kitchen daily to inspect his food.

wife to the kitchian daily to inspect his rood.

Vikka, Feb. 10.—Stellmacher, the assassin of Detective Bloch, has confessed that he murdered Police Commissury Klubeck. He declares that Eisert, the money changer was nuardered and robbed by Socialists in order to procure funds for the Socialistic agitation. Stellmacher was implicated in the plot against the Emperor of Germany. The Austrian authorities will ask Switzerland to extra Washington, Feb. 14.—The Secretary of War explained to the House Committee of Appropriations this afternoon his plans for relieving the sufferers by the floods along the Ohio River. He said one boat with provisions and clothing had been sent from Pittsburg; two boats, one up and the other down stream, would be sent out to-night from Cincinnati; one boat was sent to-day from Louisville in aid of the sufferers between that city and Evansville, and a fifth boat, to run towards Cairo, would be ordered from Evansville as seon as possible. He expected also to have two additional boats sent from different points along the Ohio, as soon as he could arrange for them. The committee will report in favor of an appropriation of at least $500,000 to-merrow.

Sax Farscisco, Feb. 15.—Ex-Wharfinger Thomof at least $500,000 to-morrow.

Six Paincisco, Feb. 15.—Ex-Wharfinger Thomas F. Quirk was in Department 11 of the Superior Court yesterday, having been brought from the County jail to plead to the seven charges of embezriement preferred against him. Judge Wilson, who presides in the absence of Judge Toohey who was in Modesto, having been summoned as a witness there, postponed the arraignment until Saturday morning. Up to last evening Quirk had not secured bonds.

Home Comfort.

There are certain principles to be observed in a room if it is to impress a visitor with a sense of comfort or beauty. For one thing there must be variety in it. It is not necessary to buy a whole set of furniture alike, but there should be one prevailing color, a solid basis on which to build. There should also be care This announcement was greeted with none careform the opposition.

Losnow, February 8.—Advices from Suakim announce that a state of siege has been proclaimed.

Some Aldershot regiments have been ordered to prepare for foreign service, and more marines have been dispatched to Egypt.
